Award Categories

Workplace Training Excellence Award

This award celebrates the commitment of an exemplary organization, dedicated to enhancing the skills of its employees. Award selection is based on the implementation of workplace training programs and activities that promote leadership and skill growth. Practices such as mentorship and essential skills development that result in upward career mobility, equity group engagement, and employee retention are taken into consideration.

Business Leadership in Literacy Award

This award commends a business or corporation in Saskatchewan for the significant financial and community support of literacy and essential skills. Award selection is based on noteworthy contributions, ongoing support of training activities, and philanthropy that encourages learners to develop their abilities.

Outstanding Literacy Project Award

This award honours a literacy project or program that makes a positive impact on learners and their community. Award selection is based on demonstrated innovation, creativity, and vision in project design and delivery. Development process, participant engagement, outcomes, and overall project successes are also evaluated.

Professional Leadership in Literacy Award

This award recognizes the dedication of a manager, employee, or teacher who supports training, literacy, and essential skills in their organization and community. Award selection is based on initiating learning activities, ensuring inclusive training environments, and other documented achievements.

Volunteer Service Award

This award pays tribute to an individual who is committed to serving individuals and their community. Award selection is based on exceptional dedication to supporting literacy and essential skills activities that may not be possible without the inspiration and help of volunteers, such as providing training, fundraising, mentorship, program coordination, and tutoring services.

Cameco Literacy Learner Award ($1000 Bursary)

This award is dedicated to an individual with exceptional commitment to their personal literacy and essential skills development in training programs and/or in the workplace. Award selection is based on demonstrated literacy and essential skills growth that makes a significant impact on their life. Showing leadership and commitment to giving back through community service is also taken into consideration.
